

Intent, Implementation, Impact

Impact:

Outcomes for all abilities are as strong as possible

Implementation: We will offer...

Expert subject knowledge of teachers

Varied extra-curricular offer

Connections with the real world

Intent: Our children will...

Pupils are engaged and motivated to learn

Development of long term memory: Recall and retrieval

Be articulate; demonstrating the ability to question and challenge.

Be confident and responsible citizens who contribute well to society

Challenging and ambitious content

Attendance will be at or above national average

Behaviour will be exemplary in and around the school.

Cross curricular opportunities

Be compassionate and caring citizens, showing respect for others

Be independent and inquisitive learners

Practical, hands on experiential learning opportunities

Cultural capital experiences are enjoyed and enhance the curriculum

A wide range of experiences including educational and cultural visits

Embrace challenges

Be resilient learners who persevere

A full range of subjects taught for as long as possible

Children will be respectful members of the community

Demonstrate positive attitudes to learning

Be ambitious and take pride in all they do

Contextualised learning

Children will have a thirst for knowledge

Strong pastoral care and support

Have a secure understanding of fundamental skills in reading, writing and maths

Sequenced and coherently planned learning experiences

Children are excited by their learning opportunities.

A broad and balanced Curriculum

A strong focus on personal development and PSHRE

Teaching that is relevant to our community

Pupils are able to articulate their learning and understanding

Learners will show resilience and embrace challenge.

